Happy Holidays!

Polar Express: A pajama day of fun and stories, like The Polar Express to ring in the holiday break. Students are welcome to wear school appropriate pajamas for our Polar Express Day on Friday, December 11th. It's our job as a school not only to teach kids how to read but to grow in them a love for reading that will last a lifetime. That lifetime love of reading is the ultimate gift a teacher can give. This is our way of making reading fun!
