Celebrating Black History...

In 1976, a week in February became a month-long celebration, known today as African American History Month. Black History Month is an opportunity to emphasize the history and achievements of African Americans.

Dates to Remember

February 20: Spring Pictures

February 23: Black History Program
& Go Texan Day

February 26 – March 2: Dr. Seuss
Week!

"Change will not come if we wait for some other person or some other time. We are the ones we've been waiting for. We are the change that we seek." – President Barack Obama

Spring Pictures: Lifetouch is returning for spring pictures on February 20, 2018. Take advantage of bright colorful spring clothing and accessories! Students must change into their full uniform following pictures.

Black History Program: We will present "The Motown Sound" on February 23rd at 8:30 a.m. in Broadway Baptist gymnasium located across the street from the main building. This is also the same day as the city-wide celebration, Go Texan Day so put on your best cowboy boots and show your Western pride.

Read Across America Week 2/26-3/2: A nationwide reading celebration on Dr. Seuss birthday, Thursday, March 2nd. We will celebrate the special week by participating in the following spirit days:

Monday 2/26 – Book: Green Eggs and Ham
Wear the color green

Tuesday 2/27 – Book: Oh, the places you'll go!
Wear any type of college gear

Wednesday 2/28 – Book: Wacky Wednesday
Wear mismatched/backwards clothing

Thursday 3/1 – Book: Fox in Socks
Wear mismatched socks

Friday 3/2 – Book: The Cat in the Hat
Wear your favorite hat

"You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself, any direction you choose." – Dr. Seuss
